Twvefik Pasha eDnies Turkish Envoys Recalled—Says He Expects Peace

REPORT THAT TURKEY
REPUBLIC, CONTRADICTED

Warships Are Being Rushed to the Bosphorus by Italy
and England

LONDON, Twvefik Pasha, Turkish
peace envoy, flatly denied today that the Turk plenipotentiaries had been ordered by the porte to return home.
This statement, greatly encouraged
the representatives of the powers
who are endeavoring to reach peace.
It is believed the Turks may yet
agree to cede Adrianople.

Twvefik Pasha said that it was not likely peace negotiations would be ended. He believes the conference will be resumed next week. He said:
"I do not expect to return to Constantinople until peace is concluded."

WARSHIPS HURRIED TO BOSPORUS BY NATIONS

LONDON, Jan. 25.—British and Italian warships are rushing to the Bosphorus, following the decision of the powers to make a demonstration before Constantinople. American, Russian and German ships are already there.

The ambassadors of the powers met
today to discuss the Turkish situation. The Balkan envoys met later.
Additional dispatches have been received saying the Sultan has been deposed and Turkey proclaimed a republic under the provisional presidency of Enver Bey. The Vienna dispatches deny the report. It is believed here the report is ridiculous
in view of the fact that a new cabinet was only announced yesterday,
and the Young Turks reported as being in undisputed control of Constantinople.

ROCKHILL HOPEFUL BALKANS
WAR WILL NOT BE RESUMED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—United States Ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople today called on the State Department that the city is quiet, despite the assumption of control by the Young Turks. He believes the resumption of hostilities in the Balkans will not necessarily follow the overthrow of Kiamal Pasha's ministry.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 25.—A severe earthquake occurred today.
No loss of life so far has been reported.

CARL REIDELBACH
IS FOUND GUILTY

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—Carl Reidelbach, alias Warr, was found guilty
by the jury of attempting to explode dynamite in a public building. The jury was out thirty minutes. Reid-

RUDE CONDUCTOR

POMONA, Jan. 25.—Mrs. H. Silverman of Chicago, who was alleged to have been dragged from the Salt Lake train here following a quarrel with the conductor over a ticket, was tak-

following the incident declared that

WILSON TO VISIT PANAMA CANAL AFTER SPECIAL SESSION

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 25.—President-elect Wilson intends to visit the Panama Canal immediately after the extra session of Congress adjourns.
He told a delegation from Asheville,
N. C., who came yesterday to offer him a summer home there, that he was not making plans for next summer, because he hoped to spend a part of it in the canal zone and could not guess at how long Congress
would be in session.

Berry Crop of Orange County
Defies Frost

Los Angeles Tribune: The
vanguard of California's great crop of strawberries arrived yesterday.

Two boxes of berries, grown in the open and without any protection were received by the Chamber of Commerce and are on exhibition in the Orange county division. The strawberries did not make the journey alone, but were accompanied by an assortment of tomatoes, lettuce, green peas,
green corn, egg plant, cucumbers,
peppers, lima beans and citrus
fruits and blossoms.

The shipment was received by Secretary Frank Wiggins early in the day without any notice of what it contained. On top were the berries, and in the face of the recent cold snap it was hard
for a moment for the veteran booster to believe his eyes.

The berries and other products
were the gift of the Orange County Vegetable Growers' Association.

FIVE DAYS ARMISTICE BETWEEN MEXICAN
FEDERALS AND REBELS

EL PASO, Jan. 25.—A five-days'
armistice is now in effect between rebels and federals, according to reports in El Paso from Villa Ahumada and Moctezuma. The armistice was arranged between the federals and rebels in order to permit a commission
composed of three federal delegates
and an equal number of rebels to confer at Moctezuma regarding peace
plans.

This is said to be the reason why
Juarez was not attacked by the rebels
Thursday. A commission composed of Frederico Moye of Chihuahua, representing the Mexican government; a federal officer of Colonel Castro's command, a third man representing Governor Abraham Gonzalez, and Phil
M. Laughlin, a Chihuahua newspaper man, are reported to be at Moctezuma, eleven miles south of Juarez, waiting for a peace delegation to come from General Salazar's rebels
to consider peace terms.

One of the demands the rebels are said to be insisting upon as a condition of peace is that all the rebels
in the field be permitted to become members of the rural corps with their present officers in command.

Ticklish Footloids.

Some real estate dealers in British Columbia were accused of having victimized English and Scotch settlers
by selling to them at long range fruit
ranches which were situated on the tops of mountains. It is said that the captain of a steamboat on Kootenay lake once heard a great splash in the water. Looking over the rail he spied
the head of a man who was swimming toward his boat. He helped him.

"Do you know," said the swimmer,
"this is the third time today that I've fallen off that bally old ranch of mine?"—Everybody's Magazine.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Five hundred police are guarding the hotel

vent the recurrence of the serious

As a result of the strikers' violence
the hotel men declared today they demands of the union. While they are greatly crippled they are steadily hiring non-union employees.

victs Work on Repairs

MEMPHIS, Jan. 25.—The levee at Buehlah, Miss, broke early today and the water is pouring through a thousand-foot gap. The inhabitants are fleeing to higher ground. The residents of Buehlah heard the roar of the waters and escaped
before the inundation reached the town.

The break is at the same point
where the disastrous break occurred
one year ago. Five hundred convicts have been rushed to the repair of the levee.

U. S. PURE FOOD BOARD BANS
SALE OF FROZEN ORANGES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The Federal Board of Food and Drug Inspection issued an order yesterday forbidding the sale in interstate commerce of fruits which have been damaged in the recent freeze in California. The order is said to be a tentative one. Other regulations may be made.

"Citrus fruit is impaired in flavor
by freezing," declared the board in its decision, "and soon becomes dry
and unfit for food, but this deterioration is not apparent externally. The damage is evidenced at first by a more or less bitter flavor, followed by a marked decrease in sugar and especially in acid content. Fruit which has been materially damaged
by freezing is inferior and decomposed within the meaning of the food and drug act.

The Bureau of Chemistry, it is said, is actively at work to aid growers to find methods of utilizing frozen
fruit, as well as healthy fruit in making orange peel confections, orange and lemon oils, orange and lemon
juices and citric acid.

SUFFRAGETTES LOST
HOPE AFTER COMMONS'
ACTION LAST NIGHT

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The House of Commons by a vote of 259 to 191 last night defeated Andrew Bonar Law's attempt to forestall the government
"guillotine," by rejecting his amendment forbidding Premier Asquith to limit debate on the franchise bill.
The suffragettes have practically given up hope of the franchise bill succeeding. They believe now that, whatever the fate of Sir Edward Grey's amendment, eliminating the word "male," the government will drop the measure.

PARENTS OF SANTA
ANA WOMAN CHARGE
BRUNS WITH FRAUD

On Thursday of this week A. D.
Bruns of the Brun's Night Patrol of Los Angeles was held to answer for trial in the Los Angeles superior court on a charge of getting money under false pretenses from Viktor Dreher,
who lives at 128 North Anderson street, Los Angeles, and who is the father of Mrs. Jacob Ralph of 411
East Second street, Santa Ana.

The charge against Bruns is that he mortgaged to Dreher property that did not belong to him. Dreher and his wife testified that Dreher paid them $500 for four lots, and the next day transferred the lots to Henry Wilms. Bruns then went to Dreher and his wife, both of whom are over 70 years of age, and persuaded them to loan him $250, saying he wanted to move some buildings on to the lots.
This was on Aug. 28, 1910.

GELDER WOULD PROBE

Alleges Corporations Manipulate Prices

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—By a unanimous vote the senate adopted
the joint resolution calling on congress to order an investigation of methods to protect citrus fruits from frost.

High Living Cost Probe

CAPITOL, SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.— Attributing the high cost of living
to the operation of corporations under various names, thereby controlling the market, Assemblyman Gelder has introduced a resolution asking for the appointment of a committee of five from the lower house to probe the situation.

Gelder asserts that he believes the corporations under this method artificially depress the price for the producer while inflating it for the consumer. His committee would be empowered to enforce attendance at investigations through subpoena, and to employ necessary clerical and expert assistance.

He alleges that produce firms keep up prices by dumping much produce in the rivers when the supply is too great. The bill also would investigate the status of monopolies alleged to be operating outright against the state law.

Lobbyists Banned From Assembly

No more will the lobbyists pursue the terrorized solon to the recesses of the assembly chamber. A rule has been adopted establishing the chamber as a sanctuary where the legislator shall be safe from ubiquitous pursuers. Lobbyists will not be permitted to enter the chamber except upon invitation by the house.

NEGROES OPPOSE SCHOOL

McEachen, of the Progressive Protection League.

MORE STRINGENT IS NEW ANTI-PRIZEFIGHT BILL

Deciding his anti-prizefight bill was not stringent enough, Senator Brown
today introduced a new one, making the holding of professional prize-fights a high misdemeanor. The bill provides a minimum penalty of $100
fine and thirty days in jail, and a maximum of $1000 fine. It includes everyone from the promoter to the spectator, and reduces the legal limit
of sparring contests from ten rounds
to four.

RE-ELECTION OF

Speaker of Wyoming Assembly
Seats G. O. P. Men; Governor Carey Protects Manson

CHEYENNE, Jan. 25.—The fact that Speaker Pratt of the Wyoming assembly, who voted with the Democrats in organizing the house, had signed the majority report seating
three contested Republicans, indicated the defeat of the Democrats in their last stand before taking the ballot for U. S. senator, and the almost certain re-election of Senator Warren.

Governor Carey announced today
that he will not permit Representative Manson to be taken from his state to Virginia, where he is charged with illegally obtaining $900
under the name of E. Roberts. Gov.
Carey ordered the West Virginia sheriff who arrived with a requisition to

MEETINGS OVER ENGLAND

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Suffragists
are holding mass meetings today
throughout England preliminary to Monday's meeting of the House of Commons when the votes-for-women struggle will be resumed. Thousands of women will parade in London Monday before the hour set for the Commons to meet. It is understood an order has been issued that there is to be no violence until the result of the deliberations of the Commons on Monday is known. In the event of defeat for the women, it is feared a general demonstration will follow.

Warrant for Arrest of General
Daniel Sickles of Civil War
Fame, Issued Today

IS CHARGED WITH TAKING PUBLIC FUNDS FOR SELF

Amount Involved is $23,476
From Fund for Erecting War
Memorial Shafts

ALBANY, Jan. 25.—A warrant for the arrest of General
Daniel Sickles of Civil War
fame, charging him with the conversion of public funds for his own use, was issued today
by Justice Rudd. Attorney General Carmody took the warrant to New York for service. The amount involved is $23,476.

As chairman of the New York State Monument Commission in charge of placing memorial shafts to mark the positions held by the New York troops during the Civil War, Sickles had charge of the commission's funds.
Several months ago a shortage was discovered. The state comptroller demanded an accounting. The original amount of $30,000 was reduced slightly when the general arranged with his estranged wife to pay the deficit.

Gen. Sickles paid $5,000 and was to pay the remainder last Monday.
Instead of the money he sent word that he had no funds, but promised to pay
as soon as he could. Criminal action was decided upon and the warrant for Sickles' arrest issued.

movement in Los Angeles for William Mulholland, builder of the Owens River aqueduct, as mayor, seems to

the aqueduct work will be finished in July, hence Mr. Mulholland is practically free to accept a nomination if it is tendered him.

ICE PACK FOR TREES

Experiment of Maryland Fruit Grower Kept Trees From Too
Early Budding

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Not one
bud has appeared on the fruit trees packed with ice by Will F. Thomas in his orchard between Hagerstown and Hancock, Md. Trees have budded in many other orchards in the vicinity, he says.

Fifteen cents a tree is all that the treatment cost Thomas during two days of mild weather. Thomas considered it tree insurance and says if the trees bear fruit, he is amply repaid and, if not, his loss is not tremendous.

appeals for mercy for federal prisoners, ranging from the call of dependent families for support, to the heroism of convicts, caused Presi-

DREW PAYROLL OF

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—Leaving
the Merchants National Bank after drawing $490 for the payroll of the Los Angeles Milling Company, of which he is the treasurer, Walter Wiley was robbed within four minutes, according to a story he told the

him from the bank to the curb where he boarded a street car. He missed
the money before the car started.

The Orange County Triangle League
held a meeting yesterday morning in Central School building for the purpose of studying games suitable for recess periods of the public schools.
The teachers also played the games
so that they will be better equipped to teach the pupils. Fifty games are suggested by the executive committee of the Triangle League to be used by pupils of the upper four grades,
and recognition of merit will be given by means of blue ribbons, to those who participated in these games.

It is thought that this project will be a valuable contribution towards solving the present problems of the recess period. Teachers are being urged to own and study Miss Jessie Bancroft's book entitled "Games for the Playground and School."

FOR RECESS PERIODS

Tustin Correspondence

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

Important W. C. T. U. Meeting
The ladies of the Tustin W. C. T. U. met at the home of the president, Mrs. A. L. Shatto, Thursday afternoon.

The spacious rooms were well filled with an interested audience.

The meeting opened by singing "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "Some Glad Day."

Mrs. M. K. Rawling, chairman of committee on resolutions of sympathy, read as follows:

"Whereas; our Heavenly Father has called home to Himself our dearly loved friend, Mrs. Mary A. Vander-muilen, we rejoice for her that she has entered into that land of joy and peace, but we grieve with the family in our temporary loss of a friend. Her sympathy was ever ready; her judgment we always relied upon. Her purse freely opened whenever the needy called for help. We loved her, we miss her and always shall until we join her in God's home of happy unions. May her spirit of sweetness, strength and wisdom descend upon her family and upon her erstwhile comrades, is the prayer of her friends."

The subject of the Temperance Temple debt was again brought up and it was decided that those who wished to do so might send a voluntary contribution and Tustin would receive credit.

Rev. Gonzales of Santa Ana was present and through Mrs. Spence the Spanish work of Tustin was presented and Mrs. F. H. Spence, Mrs. C. E. Utt and Mrs. Thos. Rawlings were appointed a committee to consider these needs. Mrs. C. E. Utt, superintendent of Mothers' Meetings, led the devotions.

Reading several passages of scripture on the subject, Rev. Gonzales led in prayer in his native tongue. Mrs. Utt had chosen for her subject, "Universal Motherhood," and presented it in a very interesting way. She showed that the whole world needs mothering. She did not feel that one need necessarily have children of their own to be real mothers, to someone that needed love and sympathy. She spoke of the great work that Jane Addams of Hull House was doing in meeting the needs of unfortunate children. That this work was not alone for teachers, Sunday school teachers, in fact if all those who come in contact with children.

Mrs. Spence told of how she and her husband, while in Alaska as missionaries to the Eskimoes, came to love the little greasy, dirty children, and when taken into their home and made neat and clean, were very attractive.

Mrs. Shannon spoke of nursing her boy through a serious accident and some of the boys that were far from home and mother almost envied him his misfortune.

Mrs. Moore spoke of how she had been repaid by caring for a homeless boy.

As Mrs. Utt had requested each one to add something to the program, a large number of the ladies gave rich experiences that made the closing hour come all too quickly.

Rev. Gonzales in a short talk urged the ladies to greater effort by showing that in visiting the county jail he had that over 75 per cent of the inmates were there because of strong drink. The sentiment of the men seemed to be that "If Christian people would do their duty and vote accordingly this liquor question would be easily settled."

Mrs. C. S. Smith's name was added to the list of members.

Impressive Talk

The teachers and some of the scholars of the Tustin school seem to have been specially impressed by a sort of temperance talk or short address given by the principal, Mr. Langworthy, at the general opening exercises of the school one morning this week. It was the giving of his experience in trying to reform cigarette smokers when earnestly requested by parents. He urged the boys not to form the habit by showing them how hard it is to overcome.

A Quiet Wedding

Mr. Earl Halderman and Miss Elizabeth Wilson were married at the First Methodist Church in Los Angeles Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Locke. They were accompanied by Miss Bertha Halderman and Mrs. Harry Wilson. They will take a short trip to Santa Barbara and return the last of next week to make their home in Tustin.

Dinner Party for Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford entertained at dinner yesterday in honor of their guest, Mrs. Myrtle Brower and little daughter, who are visiting here from Middletown, Iowa. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. David Crawford, Mrs. Margaret Crawford, Mrs. Ernest Crawford and Mrs. Eliza Packwood.

Nomination of Officers

The nominating committee of the Presbyterian Missionary Society held a meeting with Mrs. C. E. Utt Wednesday afternoon. Officers for the ensuing year were nominated and the election will be held at a meeting to be announced later.

Wedding Anniversary

On their thirtieth wedding anniversary Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Collar were given a surprise. After supper a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Feindel-son and W. A. Stafford of Santa Ana came in and announced the intention of having a party to celebrate the event. Mrs. L. Young and Miss Mae Collar were also present.

After general congratulations, covers were soon laid for twelve and a table of good things was spread.

Their Rebekah lodge friends presented them with a china salad set, and other friends gave them a set of hand-painted cups and saucers.

The evening was spent in conversation and games and the entire affair was a most pleasant one.

Whist Party

The whist party given by Mrs. Arthur Hoefer at her home last Tuesday night in honor of her sister, Miss Schildmeyer, was truly enjoyed by those who attended it. There were five tables of players and the evening sped quickly to those engaged in this fascinating game. The hospitable, cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoefer seemed particularly cheery and the bright fire glowing in the open fireplace was in pleasing contrast to the chill outside. The decorations of sweet violets were notable. Mrs. Hoefer's mother is an especially successful raiser of sweet violets and these were of unusual size and fragrance. The violet color scheme was carried through all decorations.

Refreshments of salad, wafers, ice cream and cake were served and the favors were miniature baskets of violets.

The first prize was won by Mrs. Chas. Artz. It was a hand embroidered serving apron. The consolation prize, a handkerchief, was won by Mrs. J. C. Stearns.

The first prize for gentlemen, a book, was won by J. C. Stearns, and the consolation prize won by Mr. Nimmo, was a deck of cards.

The guests were also entertained with piano duets by Misses Schildmeyer and Hoefer and piano solos by Miss Hoefer, as well as two songs by Mrs. Arthur Hoefer.

Meeting of the Coropsis Club

The meeting of the Coropsis Club was held with Mrs. J. H. Stearns this week.

While fancy work is the usual accompaniment of a great many of the women's club meetings, this club meets for the particular study of fancy work and for the cultivation of the art of doing fancy work according to latest designs and methods.

Those present at this meeting were Mesdames Lambert, House, Hart, Artz, Ed Smith, Frank Stearns, J. D. Holford and Misses Ethel Alderman, Edith and Eva Stearns.

Farewell Party

Van Matthews and his friend, Robert Ishmael, are going to leave soon for Hazelton, Kansas. A farewell party, given them last Monday night, was very much enjoyed by all the young people who attended. Games of whist and flinch were the amusement of the evening, also music on the phonograph.

Among those present were Misses Ruby Schwartz, Edith, Gladys and Eva Stearns, Jessie, Carrie and Alice Matthews and Mrs. John Keiser; Messrs. Varn, Hilliard, Geo. Prather, Walter, Pollard, Clarence, Pollard, Fenlou Matthews, John Keiser, Harry Brookbank, Van Matthews and Robert Ishmael.

The refreshments consisted of delicious chocolate, sandwiches, wafers, pickles and olives.

Meeting of Literature Section

The Tustin Literature Section met with Mrs. Sherman Stevens Tuesday afternoon with a full attendance.

All those present took part in reading "Little Women," dramatized, from Current Opinion, each lady taking a character in the drama, making the reading very interesting and very enjoyable. There was also a short story read, entitled "The Voice," by Margaret Deland.

After this instructive and enjoyable study the ladies were served by the hospitable hostess with the usual delicious refreshments.

Trip to Arizona

Quite a party of Tustin people have just returned from a trip to Phoenix, Arizona.

A week ago Wednesday a party composed of Mr. Henry Sankey and son, Messrs. McNaut and House, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome and her sister of Tustin and Mr. Cook of the San Joaquin ranch, were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuller on Monday of this week, all returning Wednesday.

Some of the party were quite surprised at the handsome buildings and progressive appearance of Phoenix and perhaps a few investments in property of that section will be the consequence.

Meeting of Economics Club

The Tustin Household Economics Section of the Elks Club held a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith on Prospect avenue.

The subject for discussion and for demonstration was "Soups." It would require no great stretch of imagination to understand how, on that rather chilly and bleak afternoon, Mrs. Smith's delicious oyster stew demonstration was appreciated. Mrs. Smith was almost accused of using some secret ingredient held back from the rest of the club, so unusually fine was the soup.

At this meeting plans were discussed and arrangements completed for the part to be taken by the Tustin section in the luncheon to be given next Saturday afternoon by the Santa Ana Household Economics Club at Elks hall. Five sections, of which Tustin is one, are to take part. Waitresses were selected and committees were appointed for making sandwiches, salads and on decorations.

With all business disposed of over their fancy work, the ladies were invited to partake of the oyster soup, with olives, toast and crackers, which were attractively served on a table decorated with smilax and lilies.

Those present were Mesdames Leiby, Adams, Johnson, Nealley, Stanley, Cranston and Smith and Misses Childs and De Long.

Poultry dinner at the Hotel Rochester, Orange, tomorrow 12:00 to 1:30. Price 50c.

The new garage on the corner of Third and C streets is now open for business. This new structure is quite an addition to that corner, occupying 50 by 75 feet, and has a concrete pavement the length of the building on both streets.

The new well now being bored at the Halderman place on Seventeenth street is progressing splendidly.

The walnut budders are busy on the large ranch owned by C. E. Utt and about fifty-five acres are being sown to barley. The recent rains have put the ground in fine condition for sowing.

The Sunday School Lesson

As Taught at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles by Rev. J. H. Sammis.

Lesson 4, January 25. After the Fall: Cain and Abel. Gen. 4: 1-15.

I. THE SITUATION

1. Chaos. (1) Before the Fall: material chaos, creation, Eden; (2) After the Fall: moral chaos, recreation, restored Eden. The first parabola the second. Sin is no trifle. Sin is a seed. A seed is no trifle, the tiniest might sow the universe. The world is so delicately poised that the pitch of a will away from God threw it off the center and wrecked it materially and morally. What wonder that He says, "Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate" (Jer. 44:4). (3) Paradise is no place for sinners. God shut them out (Gen. 3:24; Rev. 22:14, 15). It is as impious as it is vain to look for Edenic conditions with men in the guilt and power of sin. To repair the mischief of that one wilful moment is as impossible to man as to construct a universe out of material chaos. Catastrophic failure has overwhelmed our fancied progress at every stage. God only can do it. We must start where ruin started. Get right with God. First Eden within. After that—without.

2. Hope. Pandora, the Greek Eve, lifted the lid of the forbidden casket and loosened a horde of hideous things with venomous stings inflicting all the tortments of sin and its consequences. One good among the evils she held captive, Hope. This is a reminiscence of Genesis 3:15, the Protangel or First gospel, which lights our way through this lesson and the whole Bible.

II. THE TWO SONS

1. Cain. The first infant; miniature man; what a wonder—the first babe to the first pair! Eve called him "Cain." I. e. "Gotten," an American mother would have said "Gavin." I. e. "Gotten." She said, literally, "I have gotten a man, even Jehovah (the Hope)." So read Luther and many before and since, and so would all if they could believe Eve knew so much of the gospel as did the Virgin. Had Mary said what Eve said we could not doubt her meaning (Luke 1:35; Matt. 1:23).

2. Abel. "Abel" means vanity, nothingness. So Eve noted her disappointment. Cain proved no gain. Like all babes from that time he turned out bad; her sorrow, not her Saviour.

III. THE TWO SACRIFICES

1. "An offering."—why? Doubtless by Divine direction. The Lord, the Son, our great High Priest, who slew the first sacrifice and made a covering (atonement) of its skin (Gen. 3:21), taught man to offer expiatory sacrifices. This only accounts rationally and satisfactorily for the fact that all from the first have offered sacrifices. He who taught Aaron (Lev. 17:17) taught Adam.

2. Cain's offering. The product of his own labor. (v. 2) "Of the fruit of the ground."

3. Abel's offering. A creation, a gift of God, life; "of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof."

IV. THE DIVERSE RECEPTIONS

1. The Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering.

2. But unto Cain and to his offering He had not respect. (v. 5)

3. Where the difference lay. (1) Not in the characters of the men. If it were character, since perfect character must be demanded by perfect righteousness, an offering could make no difference, but here the result is linked with the offering, "and to his offering." (Rom. 3:22). His offering decides a man's standing before God.

2. Abel's offering met the requirements of Scripture.

(a) Blood—"When I see the blood I will pass over you" (Exod. 12:13); "It is the blood that maketh atonement for the soul," or "by reason of the life" (Lev. 17:11). (b) A lamb, true type of the Lamb of God (John 1:29). (c) Faith. "By faith Abel offered a more excellent sacrifice than Cain." (3) Cain's offering did not meet the requirements of Scripture. (a) It was his works. No man can be justified before God by his fruits (Rom. 3: 2, 28; 4: 1, 2, etc.) (b) It was bloodless, and "Without shedding of blood there is no remission" (Heb. 9:22). (c) It was without faith (Heb. 11:4) and "without faith it is impossible to please God" (Heb. 11:6). (4) Three fatal errors are here condemned from the beginning, but prevail till today: That men can be justified (a) by character, or (b) by works, or (c) without the blood of God's Lamb. God will have respect unto me and my offering if I approach Him with the blood of Christ. Otherwise He will not have respect either to my offering or to myself. (5) How did God indicate His acceptance? No doubt by fire from heaven (Lev. 9:24; 1 Kings 18:38). How does He indicate acceptance of my sacrifice? By the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven (Acts 2: 1-4; 11: 15-17).

V. THE EFFECT ON CAIN

1. Cain's wrath. His wage was first against his Creator. The Cain mind is the carnal mind, which is enmity against God and His laws (Rom. 8:7). It hates God because He fixed a sting in sin; linked remorse with rebellion; bred the dard in the wine cup; thrust the dagger in the liver of the debauchee; and makes pride ashamed of itself; and covetousness to scorn itself; and guilt to scorch, and sear the conscience. The Cain mind demands the pleasures of sin with the countenance of God. It would patronize God with the fruits of its apostate workings, that He may be induced to wink at its iniquities; and it is filled with impotent rage to be cast down out of His heaven (Rev. 12:10-12).

2. The Lord's reproof. (1) The loving suffering of God. We see how he bears with unreason, petulance, ingratitude, and the vilest of sinners. "Come now and let us reason together" (Isa. 1:18). Why are thou wroth? And why is thy countenance fallen? If Cain had been willing to face these questions honestly, he must have been convicted of his unreasonable conduct. "If thou doest (offerest) well, shalt thou not be accepted?" What is more reasonable than that God should refuse to receive sinners with their sin; or that He is so ready to relieve sinners of their sin, if they come in the way and with the offering He has provided. "Bring." He says, "Abel's offering with Abel's faith, and you shall find Abel's reception, and a lifting up of your dejected countenance."

3. Cain's crime. (1) Cain could not vent his rage on God, but turned against God's servant, his brother, and became the first persecutor, the first murderer, of the first martyr (Matt. 23:35). (2) Sin hides itself "among the trees of the garden" (3:8), or alone with its victim in the flesh. In such a place "Cain rose up against his brother and slew him." (3) But, "the eyes of the Lord are in every place," and even dead men tell tales, for the Lord said, "The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto Me from the ground," so the Lord's ears as well as his eyes are in every place. "Murder will out" if not now then in the judgment (Matt. 23:35). (4) Cain called to account, "Where is thy brother?" So the Lord makes a man his own accuser. He does not charge Cain with the crime, but puts the question to his memory and conscience which reply truly while his lips reply falsely. "Where art thou?" "Who told thee?" "Hast thou eaten?" (Gen. 3:9-11; 2 Sam. 12:13). "A guilty conscience needs no accuser."

(5) Cain's answer, "Am I my brother's keeper?" This was at once a confession of his crime and of his responsibility—had he been innocent he would have made a direct answer and no evasion; (6) his question reveals the consciousness of its affirmative. Not so manifestly has He given His angels charge to keep our feet and bear us up in their hands as He has us our brothers. We are obligated to protect their goods not to spoil them; to rejoice in their prosperity not to envy it; to guard their lives not to destroy them. Who of us can bear the inquisition, "Where is thy brother?"

4. Cain's punishment. (1) Abel's blood fertilized a bitter crop for Cain, "cursed...from the ground." No matter how broad the acres, and how large the profits of the sinner all is cursed to him. (2) "A fugitive and a wanderer." Such is fallen humanity, a fugitive from justice, without a guide, a compass, or a safe, or final harbor. (3) Cain despaired; "My punishment is greater than I can bear;" (or "My sin than can be forgiven"). Even he needed not to despair. There is One who bears our punishment for us (Isa. 53:4-6); and there is forgiveness for the chief of sinners (1 Tim. 1:5). Even a thief can get back to Paradise (Luke 23:43).

Cash Dividend Next Friday Jan. 31

—You May Have Part of it

The 20th Quarterly Cash Dividend will be declared Friday, January 31st, and will be paid to each and every stockholder who owns shares on that date. (Checks ready for it 30 days later).

"Home Builders" has paid a cash dividend every 3 months, and which, with the one next Friday, will have amounted to a quarter of a million dollars. This has meant $712.50 on every $1,000.00 invested for the five years the company has operated.

Besides these generous cash payments to the stockholders, "Home Builders" has laid away in its surplus a sum of about $600,000 which is sufficient to pay the dividend at its present rate for more than four years. This is why its shares have grown in value from par $1 and are worth $2.90 now.

Buy stock now, before January 31st, and have your part of this immediate cash earning.

CALL FOR MORE CATTLE

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson emphasized a few days ago the need for more beef cattle. He argued in particular that the South should thus use some great idle tracts, and he might have added that neglected opportunities of this kind could be found on the Pacific Coast. Any man who has the enterprise, in this section or any other, to start in the cattle industry with the present high cost of land, may feel sure that prices will go no lower.

The spread of the irrigation movement, the cutting up of Indian reservations and the parceling out of railroad lands, have dealt so heavy a blow to cattle raising in the northwest and southwest, that the American people will be extremely lucky if beef even remains as low as the present high prices.

Eastern farm papers are urging their readers to do their farm work with oxen instead of horses. Their arguments sound good. The ox not merely pulls the farmer's cart, but he is salable for meat. Phlegmatic by nature, he does not stand on his hind legs, nor does he attempt to climb a tall tree, merely because the cart hits a rock or tree stump.

But the horse will remain the chief burden bearer of the eastern farmer, as he has been for fifty years. The old-time farm family which used oxen for its farm work, was satisfied to go to bed after the slow, patient steers had been fed their evening ration. Their children occasionally want to drive in town for grange meeting or band concert, which they can do if old Dobbin has taken the place of the steers. But old Dobbin can't be sold for meat, at least ought not to be.

Never again, then, will the great markets of the east be fed by the fat steers from off the hills. Wherefore the west and the south must produce the beef. It is up to scientific agriculture to show how it can be done at reasonable rates with a fair profit.

Another possibility for the secretaryship of agriculture would seem to be looming up as the great railroad king, Mr. J. J. Hill of Minnesota announces his intention of doubling the grain output of the northwest.

Remember, dear good people, if it gets very cold around here again you can order your coal right from the coal mines by parcel post, so don't worry about the weather any more.

Every public man, however great, is obliged occasionally to admit a distinction between what he believes ought to be done and what he finds himself able to accomplish.

If William Rockefeller has no startling testimony to impart he ought to give back the money that has been spent by the government in its pursuit of him.

The list of places for which he is mentioned creates the impression that W. J. Bryan is one of the men liable to suffer because of too much versatility.

Congress has appropriated $23,000 for the protection of life and property during the inauguration. What are those Democrats going to pull off anyway?

A New York street car horse committed suicide the other day by leaping off a dock. Probably couldn't stand the disgrace any longer.

Reforming the Stock Exchange will be about as easy as the reformation of the New York police department, and will take as long.

South Carolina is planning to adopt a compulsory education law. Well, Gov. Bleasie is an excellent argument in favor of it.

Milwaukee has done away with socialism. Socialism was not really what made Milwaukee famous, anyhow.

Don Jorge Wickersham has dropped his suit against the coffee trust as he has found that there were no grounds.

So patriotic is the average citizen that he will not express even an opinion, preferring to send it by parcel post.

Uncle Sam is beginning to wonder already how he ever got along without the parcel post.

We can hardly wait until Clip Castro's book about the United States comes out.

CHAIRMAN JACKMAN MAKES CLEAR HIS OWN POSITION

S. J. Jackman, chairman of the County Central Committee, is anxious to keep the record straight as to actions of the Central Committee and his own individual official course in the matter of recommendations to the legislature on the subject of county offices, salaries, etc. He is especially anxious that no newspaper or verbal report as to what individual members of the Central Committee may do or say, or as to the actions of any committee of lawyers or any individual acting voluntarily or upon any request or suggestion, shall be misconstrued or misunderstood as being officially the action of himself or the executive committee of the Central Committee.

Mr. Jackman said in an interview today: "The chairman and secretary of the Central Committee were entrusted with the duty of forwarding to our representatives in the Legislature the recommendations of the Central Committee. This they did, and just as the recommendations came from the Central Committee, thus ending their official duties in the matter."

The Women Cleaning up San Francisco Morally

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—This city can now boast the model police courts of the land. Every judge is on his job, justice is administered with utmost regard for public decency and entirely eliminated, a stern regard for the law is manifested, and the stand-in and fixing type of shyster practitioner finds in the court rooms an atmosphere as chill as a destructive frost.

The regeneration of San Francisco's police courts has been complete. Evil conditions that have for years been recognized as hopeless, have suddenly been most effectively remedied. This change is an accomplished fact, and it has been achieved because of the recall and the extension of the voting franchise to women.

The case of Judge Weller, against whom innumerable women invoked the recall because of an outrageous reduction of bail for a man accused of felonious assault, has started the cleanup. There is no question but that Weller will be ousted, for men voters are as greatly aroused as are the women to strike a blow at the conditions of graft and corruption that have so long existed in the police courts.

The antics of the other three police judges at this time to escape public condemnation border on comedy. From time immemorial the judges have refused to work more than two hours a day—opening court at 10 o'clock and closing it with a bang precisely at noon. To find a judge during the afternoon or at any other time was a privilege enjoyed only by the practitioners who ply a hideous trade among the unfortunates gathered into the city prison.

Since the women have demonstrated they will submit to no outrage of justice, and the recall has proved to be so effective a weapon, the police

"Later I received a suggestion from Senator Anderson, that if any member of the bar was interested and would draw up the bill incorporating the recommendations of the Committee, it would greatly assist him, as he was rushed for time. I put the matter to four of our Progressive attorneys, and they volunteered to draw the bill, and draw it as per recommendations of the Central Committee."

"Any bill," continued Mr. Jackman, "in which anything is incorporated other than that recommended by the Central Committee AS AFFECTING OFFICES, CONSIDERED BY THE COMMITTEE—and I do not think any such bill will be drawn—would not receive the official sanction of the chairman of the Committee. However, if the committee of attorneys who are drawing the bill wish to make recommendations of their own, as affecting other county offices than those considered by the committee, if done on their own initiative and responsibility, I see no objection to having such recommendations incorporated in the bill."

judge has become the most accommodating official in the municipal government. He has suddenly become perfectly willing to hold court in the afternoon. That feverish pressure to get all cases disposed of within two hours has been abandoned. Favors to police court practitioners in reductions of bonds are about the last thing a judge would think of doing. There has come a new purpose to meet out justice with studious and earnest effort. The whole sordid scheme of things has been upset. A pull in the police courts is today the idlest boast that could be made.

Grand juries and newspapers have for years cried out in vain against vicious conditions in these petty tribunals, which, after all, constitute one of the most vital factors in the city's government. Exposure after exposure has been made, but injustice and corruption were not interrupted for a moment. There have been decent judges, but they could accomplish nothing toward an amelioration of things. The influences of vice controlled, for at election time they saw to it that this one phase of government essential to it should be brought under those influences.

The judges are now going to extremes in order to allay public hostility. "Ten thousand dollars, or $5000 in cash," is a new order of bail impositions. "Whew," responded an old-time practitioner the other day, "Probably I had better raise that," mused the judge, boldly defiant, now, of the lawyer before him.

However, police judges are going to do less "politics" and maintain better standards of administering justice hereafter. They will be free of the women and the recall. The women will not endure the outrages. The recall provides prompt and effective treatment for the situation.

The Onion By Howard L. Rann In San Diego Union

The onion is a highly-scented member of the vegetable family which can be used to good advantage either as medicine or perfume. It is one of the cheapest and most lasting perfumes on the market, and can be recognized without any difficulty at a distance of eighty rods.

The greatest delicacy in the line of spring vegetables is the young onion, which is picked in infancy, before it has had time to grow any teeth, and therefore can neither bite the tongue nor irritate the eyeballs. Young onions are eaten with the utmost abandon by people who have been crowded out of the social whirl by their table manners or methods of maltreating the English language.

Onions become old, but never weak or decrepit. When an onion gets well along in years, it is sliced thin and eaten raw by epicures who are trying to forget the taste of something else. An aged, high-spirited onion, eaten at the close of each meal, will cause a man to regret having complained about the pie crust or other crimes committed with leaf-lard.

Planters of Trees Are Warned Against Knots

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Jan. 21.—Never plant a tree that shows any sign of small or large knots. This is the warning sounded by the University of California in a bulletin by Clayton O. Smith, just issued, on "Crown Gall." This trouble is declared one of the most dangerous and widespread of plant diseases. Many almond, peach and prune orchards in California are a yearly loss to their unlucky owners because they failed, when setting out their trees, to cull out and reject all nursery stock that showed such knots. The nurseryman, so, is a heavy loser by the disease, for sometimes he has to destroy three out of four of his young trees, because they are affected with galls. This crown gall or "root knot" or "black knot" or "tumor" is one of the most widespread and serious troubles known to plant life, for while other diseases may destroy a portion of the crop or of the tree, crown gall gradually weakens the whole tree, and frequently kills it.

The disease of crown gall is worldwide, and long-dreaded. It shows a curious likeness, in some ways, to Physicians prefer to prescribe the deep-chested Bernuda onion for medicinal purposes, as it can act as a microbe before it gets anywhere near it. Some people who are full of modern microbes and ancient prejudices prefer to go around in the company of deadly germs rather than eat three large white onions a day, when they could be cured without inconveniencing anybody but those who live in the same block. The raw onion makes a fine poultice, as it has a draft like a hot-blast stove in a high wind.

The boiled onion is another fragrant bon bon which sweetens home life and inserts its languorous presence into the guest chamber. In order to boil an onion successfully it should first be killed and buried in wood ashes for three months, after which it should be cooked with the front and back doors open. When father returns home for dinner, the boiled onion will run out to meet him two blocks down the street and remind him of an engagement to eat with some traveling man down town.

cancer in human beings. Rounded knots of tissue appear, soft and spongy, or later hard. Usually the galls are on the stem and main root, just below the surface, but sometimes on secondary roots, even at some distance from the crown of the tree. From year to year the knots increase in size. Often they form large excrescences. Usually the gall rots, and this decay infects the tree, often so far as to kill it. Experiments with the tiny organism that causes crown gall were undertaken four years ago by Clayton O. Smith, Assistant Plant Pathologist in the University of California. Diseased peach trees were obtained from a nursery. In a broth made from a Japanese seaweed, pure cultures were obtained of the bacteria, present in these galls, which cause and convey the disease. To this organism Dr. E. F. Smith and Dr. C. O. Townsend of the United States Bureau of Plant Industry have given the name of Bacterium Tumefaciens. A steel needle was dipped in a culture of these bacteria and then stuck into the bark of healthy trees. This was enough to transmit the disease.

The work showed that a wound in the bark or rot is apparently necessary to give entrance to the bacteria that cause the disease. Just as a man's healthy and unbroken skin usually protects him against disease germs, while a cut on his lip or a scratch on his finger opens the door to an easy invasion of disease, so also a tree is exposed to infection when a careless farmer or a gnawing gopher wounds root or trunk.

Peach trees were those first experimented with, but a puncture with Mr. Smith's infected needle caused crown gall to develop not only in many varieties of the peach, but in the almond, apricot, several plums and cherries, the English walnut and several varieties of black walnut, the pecan, several pears, the apple, the Angiers quince, sour, sweet and Valencia citrus stock, sweet limes and lemons, the fig, Muscat grapes, the eucalyptus, the oleander, the pepper tree, and many other orchard and ornamental plants.

The way out is to find trees which are naturally proof against crown gall. If the farmer can plant trees with a rootstock resistant to these bacteria, doing his bidding and grafting on such rootstock, then his orchard will be protected against crown gall. The work has not gone far enough yet to prove certainly what varieties are thoroughly resistant to start the disease in the locust, the German prune, the avocado, the silk oak or Grævilia robusta, the wild hill cherry or Prunus ilicifolia, the Anon cherimolia, and in the olive. The olive, however, is subject to an aerial gall, as are also the quince, lemon, sweet orange, oleander, and grape. Not yet can it be stated confidently what rootstocks will completely solve the problem. The college of agriculture, however, has given the fruit grower and the gardener and the nurseryman an exceedingly valuable warning as to precaution and prevention and a valuable idea as to experiments on their own behalf, with rootstocks apparently promising of resistance against the dreaded crown gall bacteria. A copy of the bulletin will be sent to anyone who will write to the college of agriculture at Berkeley asking for it. In such investigations as these the University of California is making a great contribution to the material prosperity of California and to the welfare of every farm and every family garden plot.

A MONEY-SAVING SUGGESTION

Editor of Register: A correspondent of the Register the forepart of this week, writing along moral lines, said: "It is the easiest thing in the world to find fault," and I plead guilty to the indictment, but there is this difference between his fault-finding and mine. If his criticisms are heeded and advice followed, society will be improved and the world made better, while my fault-finding can be rated as "looking the stable after the horse is stolen."

The word Progressive is one of the most important words in our language. It means to move forward, advance, and the youngest political party as fortunate in taking that name at its birth. In local politics it is not necessary, however, that a man should belong to the Progressive party, for here is room in the word progressive or every well-meaning man, whether Republican, Democrat, Socialist, Prohibitionist or a member of the I Won't Work party—all can stand and work for the betterment of our country.

A short time ago the county central committee of the Progressive party met in this city to confer and counsel as to what had best be done for the good of our county. The most notable thing accomplished was to recommend the doing away with the office of tax collector and merge it with the office of treasurer. Right here is where I criticize. If a team at the foot of a hill has a load to haul to the top, will there be anything gained by leaving the usual road and going up some other way? There may be some excuse to accommodate a weak team by going a round about way over an easy grade to reach the top, but you will find that what is gained by the easy grade is lost in time and fully equals in physical exertion the climb by the steeper way. Apply this principle to the matter of collecting taxes. Does the central committee expect the treasurer with his one accomplished assistant to collect the taxes of Orange county without further assistance? When the trial comes, as come it must if the proposed merger is accomplished, we will find it will cost as much for the treasurer to collect the taxes as by the present method and the county will have to pay the help to do it.

I have said the word Progressive is a good word—there is another word or phrase, the "greatest good to the greatest number," and still another, "a penny saved is a penny earned." Harness the last two quotations together and put Progressive up as a driver and you have a team worth looking to, and, if properly handled and directed, capable of doing much good.

I have a hobby which I would like to trot out for the tax-payers to look at. It is this: Abolish the office of county treasurer as an elective office, and in its place authorize the county board of supervisors at their meeting on the first Tuesday in October, prior to the quadrennial election of county officers, to issue a call for a suitable person under a sealed bid to take charge of the county funds and act as treasurer for the next four years. Now, watch results. It costs the county at present for treasurer $1500 for help, $90 besides office rent and miscellaneous expenses—in all fully $2500. The money in the treasury will average five hundred thousand a year. There are three national banks in Santa Ana and another bank just as good, besides several banks in other towns in the county. All the banks advertise and are anxious to pay 4 per cent on time deposits. Oppressed and down-trodden tax-payers, stand back and look at the picture—my hobby horse.

Brother tax-payers, what would you do if you were a banker? Stand back and let the other fellow have the half million dollars at 4 per cent and loan it out for 7 and 8? Or would you put in a strong bid to be sure to get the money?

Let me whisper a word in your ear. The men in our banks are the keenest wide-awake men we have. They make money by handling money and they know how to do it. If the above idea, so feebly presented, could be crystallized into law I believe Orange county would be the gainer by $20,000 each year. And there would be another indirect advantage to the people by adopting this way of doing business. The money now lying idle in the vaults of the treasury would be loaned out among the people by the lucky bank and new enterprises would be started and Santa Ana would become a live town and the whole county be benefited.

I expect some, perhaps many, will say the ideas above advanced are impracticable and tainted with old fogeyism. I admit that a child's "brought-en" up may have an influence on his mature life. Still I must adhere to the belief that if this idea would be legalized, it would look good about the first of November of each year to all tax-payers.

PLEASANT RECEPTION

New Members of First Presbyterian Church Welcomed in Social Function

The Ladies Aid of the First Presbyterian church gave a reception for new members last evening at the church. A large number of people were present and a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed prior to the program given by the young ladies of the church. During the program, Miss Robbins and Miss Ruth Harding gave a reading, Miss Isabel Anderson and Miss Stella Nilsson rendered piano solos and Miss Etta Deardorff sang "The Rosary" and an encore number. The program was greatly appreciated by all who heard it.

Mrs. Morrison, chairman of the entertainment committee, then announced refreshments, which she thought would be enjoyed as well as the program. The pleasant hum of voices gave evidence of a very happy evening.

The new church members who were the guests of honor at last night's reception, included Misses Ruth Larson, Cecil G. Froese, Irene Florence Ashley, Esther E. Zimmerman, Isabelle A. Marshall, Zella M. Darnell, Adaline W. Hill; Mesdames

We would like, more than anyone else, to have our public recitals strictly complimentary affairs. Unfortunately, however, the very considerable and increased cost of giving a public recital makes this prohibitive, especially when all other expenses connected with operating an institution of this kind are so great.

The exact advertising value of a public musical is very uncertain. In fact, we are in no dire need of such advertising at present since our departments are a well filled. In fact, we are obliged to have a waiting list in one department.

But most parents wish their children to play in public, a legitimate desire, and one which the public recital fulfills. However, these same parents as well as the general public have no idea of the cost of a single recital, nor the necessity of charging a nominal admission fee.

Parents of pupils taking part will be given free tickets at the door if same are requested.

We feel sure you will not regret coming to hear this program. Wednesday evening at 7:45 sharp, Spurgeon's Hall.

SILVER WEDDING

Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smiley Was Scene of Delightful Anniversary Affair

Twenty-five years ago yesterday, J. A. Smiley and Miss Fannie May Jones were married in Chicago by the Rev. Wm. M. Stryker of the First Presbyterian Church of the city on Lake Michigan. Last night, the silver anniversary of that eventful occasion in the lives of the young people, who came to Santa Ana as bride and groom, was celebrated at the J. A. Smiley home at West Orange. The only guest of last evening who was present at the Chicago wedding was a brother of the groom, E. M. Smiley.

A large number of friends aided the Smileys in the silver celebration last night, and the parlors were appropriately decorated with the silvery sprays of "Dusty Miller" in honor of the occasion. Red roses were used in the dining room. The bride of twenty-five years' standing was prettily gowned in silvery gray and carried a bouquet of white hyacinths. The groom was also in gray. Many handsome gifts of silver were presented by their friends and relatives.

An amusing contest afforded merriment, the men drawing a portrait of the bride and the women being the artistic portrayals of the groom. For best efforts, Mrs. Cora Glass of Corona won first prize among the ladies and Roy Beales of the gentlemen. Each was given a photograph of the bride and groom.

A delectable wedding supper served on individual trays by Misses Catherine and Isabel Smiley, daughters of the house, and Kenneth Smiley, Carson and Stewart Smiley, nephews of Mr. and Mrs. Smiley, consisted of scalloped oysters, sandwiches in heart shape, pickles, olives, salted almonds, cake and coffee.

During the evening instrumental numbers on guitar and mandolin were played by Carson and Stewart Smith. Mr. Leigh Galloway sang two numbers and Miss Lawyer gave a reading. Before the guests departed at a late hour, each lady was given a photograph of Mr. and Mrs. Smiley as a souvenir of the silver wedding day.

The guests from Santa Ana were Messrs. and Mesdames A. Smiley, E. M. Smiley, J. A. Smiley, W. L. C. Samson, Robert McFadden, Robert Skiles, Geo. S. Thacker, A. N. Cox, C. D. Ball, Isaac McBurney, D. P. McBurney, Roy Beall, S. H. Finley, S. S. Finley, Geo. R. Smith.

The out of town guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Emil Heidecke, H. D. Witt, Fred Schleuter, M. E. Hill and Mrs. Nellie Young of West Orange; Mr. C. A. Chapman, Miss Hannah Lawyer, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Price, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Woodson of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Panier of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Howland Glass and Mr. and Mrs. Perle T. Glass of Corona; J. T. Raitt of Claremont.

Conservatory Recital

The recital to be given next Wednesday evening at Spurgeon's Hall by the pupils from the various departments of the Orange County Conservatory of Music, assisted by Mrs. Earl Fraser of the piano department, promises to be a most delightful musical event. It is being looked forward to with pleasant anticipation. Certificates from the Conservatory will be given to all pupils who have been in attendance for four terms or over. This is creating much interest. The date, Wednesday night, Jan. 29, 7:45, should be borne in mind.

Whist Was Played

The Manzanita Whist Club was entertained last night by Miss Marvel Baker. Ladies' first prize was won by Miss Hazel Thomas, the consolation for ladies going to Miss Lena Thomas. Richard Marple won high score prize for the men, and Dr. Ross took the consolation.

Happy Birthday Party

Miss Ellen Ross entertained her school friends Thursday evening at her home on North Flower, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday. Jolly games were played until about 9:30, when twelve couples found partners for supper by matching dissected pictures. The dining room was very cheerful with fuchsia cactus and pink crepe paper. The large dining table and two smaller ones looked very dainty with their white linen and pink paper bows and bands. The well beloved birthday cake with its pink and white candles in pink roseholders formed the center piece. Pink card favors marked places at the table, where a repast of olives, sandwiches, pickles, cake and chocolate was served by Mrs. Ross, assisted by her youngest daughter, Evelyn, Miss Ellen cutting the first slice of her birthday cake amidst a chorus of good wishes.

Following the dinner, cards with the words "Jefferson School" were distributed, and Miss Maybelle Cottonson was awarded a book of poems for making the largest number of words out of the school name in five minutes. Mrs. Beckwith being given a cute little toy for consolation. The happy evening was closed by a jolly half hour around the table, eating toasted marshmallows.

The young people left early on account of school days, leaving with Miss Ellen many pretty gifts and wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Happy Birthday Party

In response to dainty invitations issued some days ago, a party of seventeen young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gowen last evening to celebrate the birthday of their daughter, Henrietta I. Gowen. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with an abundance of ferns and Roman hyacinths.

Several merry games dispelled all formality, then hand-painted domino score cards were distributed and the game of the evening, progressive dominoes, caused much merriment. About ten games were laid aside as the tables were spread with lunch cloths and delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake and gaily wrapped candies were served. Supper partners were selected by means of matching certain well known characters of fiction or history.

Snapping bon-bons containing caps and favors proved a happy feature and closed the happy evening. At a late hour, the young people dispersed wishing the honored young lady many more happy anniversaries.

The guests included Helen Carden, Louise Grubb, Norma Wingood, Elsie Wingood, Greba Scott, Evelyn Decker, Lillian Walker, Claire McPhee, Frank West, Melvin Kittle, Herbert Kendall, Maurice McElree, Dale Talbot, Paul Anderson, Hugh Gale and James Ryan.

PRICE OF WATER IS REDUCED TEN CENTS

The S. A. V. I. Co. today announced that beginning next Monday water, which is now on application, will cost twenty cents per hour instead of thirty cents as now. Many orchardists are doing a good deal of irrigating at this time of year, thus putting water into the ground and lessen the demand of the orchards for water next summer.

CHICKEN SHOW FOR FEBRUARY

Poultry Fanciers Are to Present Their Birds at Orange So All Can See Them

A meeting of poultrymen was held at Orange last night with the result that a decision was reached to hold a poultry show at Orange from Feb. 17 to Feb. 21. James Fullerton was chairman of the meeting and George Hart secretary.

There was expressed a sentiment in favor of forming a county association of some kind for the purpose of holding annual shows. It was proposed to have the shows at Orange, Santa Ana and Anaheim or Fullerton, one show each year.

The desire of the poultrymen who were present at the meeting last night was to have the show open to the public without an admission charge being made. It is thought that in that way the publicity gained for the exhibitors would be greater and the show made more successful.

WATER COMPANY IS TALKING OF BUILDING

ORANGE, Jan. 25.—The board of directors of the S.A.V.I. Co. is meeting this afternoon, and will probably have up for discussion the matter of a new building for the company. President Dierker stated today that he did not think it advisable to build this year for the reason that some of the growers were hard hit by the freeze and he did not think it best to incur that additional expense this year.

J. P. Smith, secretary of the National Town & Home Builders, was here today endeavoring to adjust the Honey tract difficulties. An appointment was made by him to meet A. E. Honey at the Los Angeles office next Monday, at which time it is believed arrangements will be entered into that will make it possible for those who have contracted to buy lots in the tract to get their titles clear.

FAREWELL MEETINGS OF THE SALVATION ARMY FOR OFFICERS

Special attention is directed to the important week-end meetings of the Salvation Army, of which information is given in the regular church notices. These are to be the farewell meetings of Capt. Sochon and his assistant, also of Envoy Annie Pfeiffer. The captain ten months ago opened the corps in this city, and he, quite alone, and in a strange city and a strange land, succeeded in establishing a fine corps, with a good hall, furnished complete, with officers' quarters, etc., with all necessary equipment to carry on the work.

At the union meeting tomorrow afternoon at the United Presbyterian Church, the captain will give a report of the work done during his command here. Envoy Pfeiffer, who went into the ranks of the army a few months ago and has worked hard in the interests of the corps, in doing which she has won the love and esteem of many in this city, will also bid Santa Ana farewell. Her destination will possibly be San Diego. A number of officers and comrades from Los Angeles are coming to help the captain with the special meetings.

A great attraction tomorrow night will be the giving away of a pair of twin babies.

Altogether big meetings are being looked forward to.

DEMAND FOR APPLES INCREASING

Owens Valley Farmers Reaping the Benefit

It is a surprising fact that the increase in the production of apples has fallen far behind the increase of population in the United States. This, taken in connection with the sudden and remarkable popularity of the California Apple in foreign countries, should give some idea of the wonderful future in store for the apple industry.

The Owens River Valley has more to commend it as an apple and pear growing section than any location on the Coast. It has a most healthful elevation (4000 feet). It is between two ranges of mountains that completely protect it from wind storms and supply it with water for irrigation from the melting snows that cap the Sierras the year round. Its soil is extremely rich. The locality is free from pests or blight, and the hot, dry winds that prevail in other sections.

The Valley offers substantial money-making opportunities, not only in perfect, highest priced apples, but in diversified farming as well. Alfalfa, barley, and hogs thrive wonderfully, as do potatoes, corn and onions, which can be grown on the land while the orchards are maturing. By this means the settler can be making an income from the land while paying for it, and waiting for his fruit trees to bear. Poultry, and bees do splendidly and can be made to pay a handsome profit.

Some of the best land in the Valley can still be purchased at a remarkably low price and on easy terms. It is owned by the Owens Valley Improvement Company. All this land is under an excellent irrigation system, and water rights are sold with the land. It is 250 miles from Los Angeles, on the Southern Pacific trunk line to the East. Near Bishop and Independence, and Menzies, thriving towns, with schools and churches. C. R. Thomas & Son, 229 Title Insurance Building, Los Angeles, are selling agents. Write to them for literature or any information desired regarding this coming section, or call at their office when in Los Angeles. Join their excursion which leaves Los Angeles February 4th.

AUTOMOBILE IS HERE MONEY IS NEEDED

The automobile which was ordered for the County Committee of the Y. M. C. A. and which will be used by the County Secretary, has arrived, and is now on exhibition in the West End Garage.

The automobile is a 1913 model five-passenger Ford, and cost with extras $700. About $400 remains to be secured before the purchase can be consummated, and it is hoped to have this amount subscribed and paid very soon, so that the secretary may have the conveyance at his disposal as soon as possible.

County Secretary Hamilton is expected to assist in nearly a dozen or more places in the county, and as many more places are calling for assistance in work with boys. There is the work among the public schools, promoting the Triangle League, which is certainly a good movement and ought to have the widest attention possible. But the work is not proving satisfactory without the car, and a great many plans are being held up because of the lack of a suitable conveyance.

When the secretary goes to other towns of the county he always has to hurry his work, so as to be able to fit his time in with the train schedules, and therefore cannot give as much of his attention as he desires. It is planned to give a suitable name for the automobile and it is hoped to offer a prize of $2.00 for the best sent in. All those interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. Triangle League or any other good work now being done throughout the public schools of the county can give their subscriptions towards the car to W. B. Tedford at the First National Bank.

DEMONSTRATION GIVEN SHOWS TIRE'S SUCCESS

The announcement made by the Diamond Rubber Company to the effect that they have perfected an automobile tire that gives more resiliency than the fabric tires, is of interest to all motorists. The claims made for their Silvertown cord tires are that they give greater mileage and speed and consequently cut down gasoline consumption; that they are not liable to stone bruises and not subject to blowouts.

Wishing to prove their claim that the Silvertown cord tires will exceed any fabric tire in mileage, resiliency, riding qualities and at the same time produce much less tire friction, E. H. Needles, a representative of the Diamond Rubber Company, yesterday afternoon conducted several comparative tests in the vicinity of Red Hill. Mr. Needles used a Rambler car in making his demonstrations which was first equipped with fabric tires and put through a series of stunts, hill climbing, coasting and speed tests, after which the Silvertown cord tires were put on the same car and the maneuvers repeated over identically the same roads.

A party of Santa Ana men at Mr. Needles' request accompanied him and noted the result of the various tests. In the party were C. E. French, Geo. Minter, A. C. Black, Geo. Balderston and H. Haynes, the latter of the Santa Ana Vulcanizing Works which concern is a local agent for Diamond tires. The result of the tests were reported as follows:

Ordinary fabric tires in hill climbing test—Left starting mark at foot of hill with running start 18 miles an hour. Half way up hill 17 miles an hour and reached top of hill going at 16 miles an hour.

Silvertown cord tires—Left the foot of hill at 18 miles an hour. Half way up hill at 20 miles an hour, and was going 21 miles an hour at the top of the hill.

In the coasting test the fabric tires' distance was .85, the Silvertown cord tires' 1.01 miles.

The gasoline test showed about 15 per cent in favor of the Silvertown cord tires.

The most notable difference in the construction of the Silvertown tires from all other tires, is that instead of a fabric being used in making the body of the tire, only two layers of heavy cords drawn diagonally over the tread of the tire with a heavy layer of rubber between form the carcass are used.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Dried fruits continue firm at prices which have prevailed for some time, and a decided change is not expected. The crops were large last year, and in the case of most varieties this tends to prevent advances which generally occur at this time. Prices opened low at the beginning of the season—a condition which is rather unusual—and firmed during the winter and early winter months.

Potatoes promise to remain at the same price for an indefinite period. Advances are that the supply in the north is still very large. There has been no decided change for nearly a month. Beans also continue very steady, with offerings of large lots below the market quotations now and then. Blackeyes were easier yesterday. Tomatoes show a tendency to advance, on account of the local shortage. Sweet potatoes have been rather firm, although the last two days there has been a little easier feeling. Other vegetables continue pretty steady since the recent advance. Poor stock helps to keep prices down in some cases.

Cranberries were stronger yesterday. The supply is limited. Nearly all other varieties of fruit on the market are cold storage. Practically all the fruit on the market is cold storage and grapes, pears and the like are gradually cleaned up, but will last for some time. Bananas continue easy and receipts are very good. Apples are in good demand and supply; considerable fruit stored in the north is brought on the market as it is needed. Apples have been of very good quality this year, and the supply large. There has been a tendency to flood the market early in the season, as was sometimes the case in other years. Prices have fluctuated comparatively little, as a consequence. Citrus fruits are very firm, with the exception of some poor stock.

There were no changes in staples yesterday. Fresh eggs showed a tendency toward higher prices. Some dealers believe that they will continue around the present rate for some time. Receipts were large by comparison, a big shipment of fresh Petalums being reported in. Eggs are higher in the north and this should cause a further advance in Petalums locally. They firmed yesterday.

Join the Santa Ana
Yucaipa
Colony

And be one among wise investors. Follow the example of Mr. J. S. Kohler of Santa Ana who last year bought a Yucaipa ranch and whose health was restored by Yucaipa climate and who now cares for six orchards for his neighbors; John M. King and A. C. Van Brocklin, young men who planted orchards and are now engaged in other occupations while their trees grow; Mr. A. A. Adams, who bought a planted orchard and built a home in the townsite; A. H. Palmer and W. E. Broadbent, who each bought 10 acres on the "South Bench" and joined one of the little orchard companies for the planting and care; Rev. C. H. Fowler, who bought as near the foothills as he could get; J. R. Schooley of Schooley & Schenck; Prof. Emory Ratcliffe of the High School faculty and such careful and successful ranchers as C. Hoefler of 1717 Bush St. and John Rose, of 1610 East Seventeenth St., all of who also joined one of the co-operating planting companies.

The Cost
of planting an apple orchard is not one-fourth as much as the cost of planting an orange grove. The care of an apple orchard is not over one-third as much in cost as an orange grove. Yet the profits in Yucaipa Valley are greater by far than orange groves yield anywhere. And you get results quicker. No smudging; no anxiety about freezing; no damage from winter and desert winds; less work irrigating and pruning.

The One Day Trip
Up in the morning, back the same evening. We go either by automobile or railroad, through Corona, Riverside, San Bernardino, to famous Redlands, and then through the valley. See the bearing orchards, hundreds of acres of young trees, big vegetable gardens, the domestic and irrigating water systems, and the "South Bench," the cream of the valley, where big things are being done. Come to our office and get full information on all phases of this fine development and opportunity. Phone 970W.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

$1,000 IS BID
FOR HILL LAND

John Bennett's Ranch Secured
by Adolph Rimpau Because of Oil Possibilities

Thirty-eight acres of land, most of it on edge, lying three miles east of Olinda and north of Yorba, was bought in the superior court yesterday by Adolph Rimpau for $1,000. The property was appraised a few months ago at $310. Because of the fact that the land lies in the same range of hills with Olinda, it brought more than three times the appraised value.

The land belonged to the estate of John Bennett, an old hermit, who lived in a cabin on the place for a number of years, drawing a monthly allowance from the county. Bennett was found dead in his cabin last summer, probably a month after death occurred. The old man had no relatives here, and Public Administrator Winbiger applied for letters of administration and was made administrator. As yet the administrator has been unable to locate any heirs, and the indications are that the residue of the estate will go to the state.

As farming land the property is almost valueless. Perhaps two acres of the thirty-eight could be plowed. It could be used as a site for an apiary.

Recently there has been a good deal of excitement over the spread of the Fullerton oil fields, and speculators have bought a good deal of land with the hope that the field might spread to include their purchases. This condition added to the speculative value of the Bennett estate. Yesterday when Judge West arrived at the point of selling the property, several bidders were present. Among them was Kenyon of Long Beach and Adolph Rimpau of Anaheim. The bids went up from $500 to $1,000, at which figure the bidding stopped and Rimpau was made the purchaser. The public administrator has the $1,000. From that the expenses of administration and a claim of the county for about $100 for money allowed Bennett during his lifetime will be paid. Unless heirs are located, the residue will be paid to the state.

Adoption Ordered
Yesterday Judge West granted the petition of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robbins of Olive to adopt Baby Crow, who is less than a year old.

Is Again Sued
Notice of attachment has been recorded by Sheriff Riddick in an action brought by the Prince Frain & Milling Company against the Morton Dairy Company for $1097.05. Last September the grain company sued the dairy company for $2397.23, but the action was dismissed after being in the courts for about six weeks. Clyde Bishop represented the grain company.

Suit for Divorce
An action for divorce was brought today by Ellen P. Thompson against John W. Thompson. W. F. Heathman is attorney for the plaintiff.

Must Go to Jail
Today Judge West issued a commitment on the authority of which Mrs. Kate Measor will be taken to jail to serve two terms. She was tried on two charges of liquor selling. On one charge the sentence is a fine of $25 and a term of six months in jail. On the second she must pay $100 fine and serve seven months in jail. The serving of one term will not commence until the other is served. Mrs. Measor lives at Delhi. She will probably be placed in jail Monday.

Mechanic's Lien
A mechanic's lien has been recorded by the Griffith Lumber Co. against Elmer J. Martin on a claim for $85.45 for material furnished Martin for a building on one of the lots in the Honey tract at Orange, over which there has been trouble as the result of the difficulties between Clarissa Honey, the owner, and the National Town & Home Builders, the promoter of the tract.

Appraisers Named
J. G. Quick, W. D. Seely and C. E. Loring have been appointed to appraise the estate of Anna D. Lewis.

Decree is Given
An interlocutory decree of divorce was given today to Raymond J. Rogers against Marie Rogers. The defendant defaulted. H. C. Head is attorney for the plaintiff.

Orange County Quarter Centennial Edition of the Santa Ana Daily Register

The Register is getting together material for a Souvenir Booklet of Orange County. This county being just about twenty-five years old, the publication will be entitled Orange County Quarter Centennial Edition of the Santa Ana Daily Register, and it will contain a complete presentation of the Resources and Attractions of Orange County—all parts of Orange county, all industries, attractions and phases of life.

The booklet will consist of about 100 pages, about the size of the Saturday Evening Post. It will be printed on the finest book paper and profusely illustrated with photo-engravings—the finest panoramic views from mountain and hilltops, marine views, inspiring scenes, the handsomest homes, the principal public buildings, such as courthouse, the new hospital (from architect's drawing), city hall, schools, churches, bank buildings and business blocks, orange and walnut groves, celery and alfalfa fields,—in all probability a hundred or more pictures.

The articles will be carefully prepared by the best writers in the county, as the following leaders will indicate: Orange County Considered As a Horn of Plenty—By Linn L. Shaw.

A Day's Ride by Auto Through Orange County; What It Shows of Beauty, Peace and Plenty—By Lee M. Hopper and Fred A. Ross.

Social Conditions in Orange County—By Kate Kennedy Roberts.

Religious Conditions in Orange County—By Rev. J. A. Stevenson.

The Public Schools of Orange County—By L. P. Mitchell, County Superintendent of Schools.

Political History of Orange County; A Quarter of a Century of Honesty and Efficiency in the Public Service—By T. E. Stephenson.

Factors That Make For Good Citizenship in Orange County—Rev. J. Herndon Garnett.

Harbor Possibilities of Newport Bay—By Linn L. Shaw and Lew H. Wallace.

Besides these and other general articles on Orange County, there will be a special article on each of the county's leading industries, and a section of the publication will be devoted to each of the towns for general write-up and special articles, and also to each part of the county having individual distinction or importance, such as the Peatlands, the San Joaquin Ranch, La Habra Valley, Lemon Heights, etc.

We want for this publication the widest possible circulation. It will be so interesting and handsome and complete that it will be preserved for months and years in the homes to which it will be sent by Orange County people, and thus become a lasting and to some extent a permanent advertisement for Orange County.

We want also to get as many advance orders as possible, so as to be able to determine how large an edition to print.

The retail price of the book, wrapped ready for mailing will be 15c, but we will take cash in advance orders at the rate of four (4) copies for fifty cents (50c) or ten copies for one dollar ($1.00), to be delivered at this office all wrapped ready for mailing; or we will mail the copies you order upon receipt of your list of names and addresses, together with the amount of postage required. This amount will be announced as soon as it can be determined.

Meantime send in your orders and money, 15c per copy, 4 for 50c, 10 for $1.00. These rates are for cash-in-advance orders only. After publication the price will be 15c per copy straight, except in quantities of 100 or over.

Don't be afraid to send in your orders or money, for if the publication is not the handsomest and most valuable ever issued in Orange County—if you are not entirely satisfied with it as a credit to the county and a valuable advertisement for the county you can get your money back.

ers against Marie Rogers. The defendant defaulted. H. C. Head is attorney for the plaintiff.

AN INGENUOUS BALLOT BOX

Mr. James A. Wells of Alberton has recently invented an ingenious ballot box, of which the following is a brief description:

It consists of a small steel box with two press buttons at one end for the voters and one at the opposite end for the recording officer. Between these is a small screen, so arranged that the voter's ballot is secret. Behind each button is a holder for the candidate's photograph and name. The voter simply steps around the screen and presses the button in front of the candidate he wishes to vote for. This operates a register and a bell rings.

It is impossible to vote twice, or for both candidates, owing to a cross-locking device.

When the poll is closed, the two doors of the box are unlocked and the number of votes to reach candidate appears on separate registers in plain figures, discarding the old method of counting and recounting ballots. A half turn of a thumb screw locks anyone from tampering with it.

A seal is placed on the door locks. Each register will record nine thousand nine hundred and ninety nine votes.

The machine weighs twelve pounds and can be made at reasonable cost.

Occupying Winter Quarters

The pullets ought to be in their permanent quarters, and if they belong to the Mediterranean or American breeds and were hatched early, they may have begun to lay. If backward in laying, and still in good health and active, the desired result may sometimes be secured by a change of feed. It is a good plan to feed rather liberally on green cut bone, when this can be obtained. In lieu of this ration some other form of meat must be used.

RAYMOND'S DEPARTMENT STORE

MAIN STREET, OPPOSITE C. at fall

To My Friends and the Patrons of the Hardware House of S. Hill & Son: Many times during the past nine months I have been warned that I must quit all business and take a long and indefinite rest, but I could not see the necessity of heeding the warning—not just yet.

A few days ago I was stricken down and compelled to heed the numerous warnings. So that, now I have turned over to the junior member of the firm (G. T. Hill) my entire interest in the business that has for the past 27 years been conducted under the name of S. Hill & Son, and he will, until further notice, conduct the business under the same name.

I had hoped that I might continue yet a long time actively engaged in the business that has occupied my time for the past 57 years.

I have flattered myself that my 76 years have set so lightly upon me that I was not considered the old man that the years indicate, and I think I may yet hope that when the present crisis shall have passed I may enjoy a goodly number of years in this, the best place on earth.

And now, thanking all those who have contributed to the success of the business in which I have hitherto been engaged and being at peace with all the world, I bespeak the kindly consideration of my friends for my successor.

WHEN LOAFING IS GRAFTING
Philadelphia Telegraph: All men who earn a fixed wage should be minded that their workday time is paid for by someone who has a right to all of it. Suppose you earn a yearly salary of $2500, and work eight hours a day and four on Saturdays. You receive $1.30 for every hour of the forty-four you work. Did you earn it?

If you are late every day or so; if you gossip every little while with the office force; if you spend more than the allotted time for lunch; if you do private business during your work hours you will lose probably half an hour a day, or rather your employer will lose it. At your rate of pay this will be a loss to him of just about $170 a year. And you have been overpaid by just that amount.

To be successful you do not need to watch the clock, save to be punctual and scrupulous of your employer's time. It is paid for whether you work or loaf. This is a small matter, but it is important. It lies at the basis of real success.

Loafing, that nets you $170 is just "grafting." And you are not the man to get out and shout about the "gang" in politics or business. You are a member in good standing so long as you "graft" $170 off your employer.

Unpolished Gems
"Was evening in June. He said to her: 'How quietly does the gloaming engulf the day when the twilight comes And the stars begin to twinkle!'"

She said to him: "Yes, it may be true, But it seems to me that the gloaming is likely to have—so I've observed—More or less of a 'dew' about it."

These lines aren't rhymed, as the reader knows. But are printed here for the purpose of showing how poems appear before They are carefully pruned and polished.

Most Costly Porcelain Service.
At an exhibition of works of art held in St. Petersburg was a set of porcelain dishes which is considered the most costly in the world. It consists of 36 hand-colored plates. This set has an estimated value of 36,000 rubles ($18,540), a single plate, therefore, being worth 1,000 rubles ($515). It is the property of Count Orloff-Dadivoff.

ONE MORE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE THE HARBOR

Acreage Worth $400,000 Is Placed on Market by F. P.
Newport Corporation

Striving to establish a new record for the quick sale of desirable harbor property, the F. P. Newport company of Los Angeles, which has just disposed of the Wilgry tract in record time, have placed on the market for sale, the great Dominguez Harbor tract, lying immediately upon the harbor front, midway between Long Beach and Wilmington. This tract, comprising seventy-three acres, was recently purchased for more than $400,000 by a syndicate of Los Angeles realty dealers. The Newport company will be the sales agents. The first excursion to the new tract from Santa Ana will leave at 9 a. m., Jan. 30th.

The Dominguez Harbor tract is bounded on the south by the old Anaheim road, now Seventh street. On the west the boundary line is fixed by the Dominguez creek, recognized by the war department as a navigable water way. Immediately east of the tract is the Insulated Glass works. South of it across the harbor, is the Craig shipbuilding works and to the southwest are the great plants of the Consolidated and the Pacific Lumber companies. The Salt works, the Long Beach power plant and the Southern California gas works are immediately south of the tract. The Gas company is building a big line through Seventh street.

Emphasizing the value of the tract for industrial and business purposes are the Pacific Electric railroad traversing the property from east to west and the Southern Pacific line running diagonally through from the southeast to the northwest.

The tract has been subdivided with Seventh street as its base line, the streets with one exception being sixty feet wide with 10-foot sidewalks. The Dominguez boulevard, running north and south, and which eventually will lead directly to Los Angeles, is cut through 100 feet wide with 10-foot sidewalks. The tract is ten blocks long by two blocks wide. Most of this property is obviously best fitted for industrial and business purposes, but in the northerly end are sites for residential purposes. Immediately south of the Seventh street line the adjoining property is bordered on its southern extremity by the Long Beach Harbor waters.

The excursions run by the F. P. Newport Co. from Santa Ana proved so popular that they will run another half-rate excursion to Los Angeles Harbor, including the 20-mile boat ride around the harbor.

Special cars will leave the Pacific Electric ticket office Thursday, Jan. 30th, at 9 a. m. Round trip tickets, including lunch and boat trip, will be sold at 75c. Tickets must be purchased in advance, of agents at Rossmore Hotel.—Advertisement.
